Unto the grand populace of the Kingdom of the Outlands, do We, Lycurgus and Mikhailina send our most heartfelt greetings. Many thanks do We owe to our fair subjects for the wonderful services and gifts they have donated to Us this far into our reign.

Thanks to the populace of the Citadel for a wonderful time at Enduro. Even through the rain, spirits were high and good times had by all. To those who were unable to attended the Pennsic War, know that you have Our complete gratitude for allowing Us to represent Our fair Kingdom in a most Outlandish manner. Mistress Brianna, Sir Nasr and Lady Ketourah were exceedingly generous in attending to our needs during the entire event. A hearty Huzzah! goes to the members of Rio de las Animas Perdidas for a truly entertaining and restful event. We wish you success in further endeavors.

It has come to our attention that the Outlands is lacking a respectful naval presence. Therefore, it has been decided that one shall be built. Now everyone knows that mighty fighting vessels don't grow on trees (but are just made from them) so it has been decided that a naval tax will be imposed upon the populace of the Outlands. Since this naval fleet will be protecting the Kingdom's foreign interests abroad, every citizen must do their part and pay the tax. The King's Men in Black will be collecting said tax. For those who refuse to help in the naval growth of this Kingdom, the Legion of Doom will convince you of your patriotic spirit.

In order to prepare for upcoming wars, We have asked for a War Practice to be held in the shire of Arquelle on the first day of November. Both heavy and light fighters are encouraged to attend and practice their drills and scenarios. We suggest that the shires and baronies help with the outfitting of every fighter and encourage all to travel. Perhaps tabards with kingdom colors could be sewn by local artisans. Then each fighter may personalize a tabard as he/she sees fit. This practice should be encouraged among both heavy and light fighters. The White Scarves have asked that each shire or barony sponsor 3-person fencing melee teams for this event.

As We grow old, We become more and more sentimental. Anyone who has taken photographs of Us during Our reign is asked to send copies. We will gladly reimburse for the expense. We would add a reminder to those that donate gifts. The Crown over the Stag's head on the Kingdom Device is reserved only for the current King and Queen. If you wish for the object you donate to remain a part of the regalia forever, put a Crown on it. If you wish for the object to be a personal gift, leave the Crown off.

We hope to see all our loyal subjects at one of the many events We will attend in the next few months. May your fall harvests be bountiful and your travels be safe from the plague of hobgoblins, ghosts and witches.

Lycurgus Dred Rex

Mikhailina Korolyeva

P.S. There has been some speculation towards the King's health. According the Royal Physician the King is in fine health. It just seems that the King is enamored with boats these days. This is nothing that should concern the general populace.

FROM THE SENESCHAL

Unto the people of the Outlands come greetings from Maestra Francesca di Pavia, Kingdom Seneschal:

You are probably aware by now of the new policy enacted by the Board of Directors at the July 1997 meeting concerning the purchase of alcohol. The policy states that SCA funds may not be used for the purchase of potable alcohol, except for such quantities as may be needed for cooking. Therefore, from now on no SCA branch may purchase alcohol for distribution at events. Note that this in no way affects the rights of individuals to purchase or provide alcohol for themselves and their friends of legal drinking age if the site rules do not prohibit alcohol. However, all actions involving alcohol - purchasing, serving, and furnishing - must now be carried out solely by individuals representing only themselves, not the SCA.

This ruling also affects the manufacture of alcohol. Brewers' Guilds may certainly continue to exist, but their activities may not be funded in any way by any SCA branch. That means that the purchase of supplies and equipment for brewing and vintning must be done by the individual brewers themselves using their own funds or funds donated to them individually (not to the SCA) for this purpose. No SCA group may use SCA funds to purchase any sort of brewing supplies or equipment.

These policies are pretty harsh, I agree. Nobody, from the Board of Directors on down, is happy that they must be implemented. Nevertheless, under current circumstances, the SCA has no alternative but to go this route. These policies must and will be implemented in the Outlands from now on. (If your local Brewers' Guild has materials or equipment purchased using group funds in the past, don't worry. The policy is not retroactive. Just don't do it any more.) Please contact me if you have questions or concerns about the SCA's alcohol policy.

On another note, please remember that bids for March Crown Tournament (Southern Outlands) and May Coronation (Northern Outlands) are due to Mistress Coemri by Coronation, which is on November 8! That's only a month or so away!!!! We are moving up the due dates of bids for Crowns and Coronations to six months before the event so that successful bidders have adequate time to reserve sites and plan a wonderful event. Start planning ahead NOW!!

Wishing all a lovely autumn -

Francesca

FROM THE MINISTER OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Kingdom Arts & Sciences Collegium is here! If you've had the chance to see the revised schedule then you may have noticed the addition of a seventh classroom which has already been filled. The variety of classes this year is wonderful. Once again, thank you in advance to everyone who has volunteered to teach. An extra classroom will be available throughout the day for workshops, impromptu classes and discussion groups. For the most up-to-date schedule, check out the Outlands Homepage on the Web. I hope to see everyone there!

It is never too early to think about our Kingdom Arts & Sciences Competition coming in April. Some of the basic site requirements include: one large or several smaller rooms with numerous tables for displaying items, a space for performing arts including adequate audience seating, a private room for Their Majesties, and evening and possibly day feasting. If you or your group is interested in hosting this event, please contact me or the A&S Deputy, Baroness Sarah.

In service,

Marie

FROM THE EXCHEQUER

Unto the populace of these fair Outlands, greetings.

The Outlands has a new and improved financial policy. It should be in the hands of the local exchequers by October 15th, which coincides with the third quarter reports being due.... Please take time to look at it. It is an effort to bring us up to speed with the other Kingdoms. Please forward your comments to me.

A gentle reminder to the Kingdom Officers that your annual budgets are due to me by November first, so they can be included in the Financial committee meeting, and your expenditures approved for the coming year. Make sure to include any trips that you may have to make (Known World Symposiums) and supplies, postage, and printing.

I would extend a special thank you to the Barony of Unser Hafen, who donated the entire proceeds of Crown Tournament to the Kingdom. We have also heard from Scorpions Hollow, Caer Galen, and Ard Tir. Thank you for your generous support of your Kingdom. We have received a donation from gentles at Estrella War who held a fundraiser for the waterbearers, and chirurgeons. I would encourage all of you to establish a regular pattern of donation to your Kingdom. Your generosity allows our Kingdom to function.

Aldyth

FROM THE KINGDOM SCRIBE

Greetings to one and all. There have been a number of people in search of a current Scribe's Handbook recently. I would like to assure you that a revision is underway. If you have any suggestions for changes, additions or deletions please let me know. I plan to send out drafts of the new edition, when it is ready, to a small set of people for comment. If you would like to be on this list, and believe that you have the time and desire to help edit this rather lengthy work, then please give me a call or email. I already plan to include certain kingdom officers on this list, so don't be surprised!

Another issue I would like to touch on briefly is the size of scrolls. Unlike many kingdoms, the Outlands has always left the size and elaborateness of scrolls up to the discretion of the scribe doing the work. This has worked very well for the most part. The one slight problem that I have seen is that some scrolls are getting to be unmanageably large.

There are several problems with enormous scrolls. They are difficult to transport and may be damaged on the way to an event because they won't fit into a portfolio. If the Crown is flying to an event, it makes it nearly impossible for them to bring scrolls with them if they are too large. The other main problem is that large scrolls are prohibitively expensive to frame. You don't want your work left in a closet somewhere because the recipient can't afford a frame, so consider making your scrolls a standard frame size such as 11x14 or 16x20. Finally, many of the large scrolls that I have seen would have looked nicer if they had been scaled down overall. The illumination which would look detailed and intricate on a smaller scroll just looks coarse when blown up to accommodate the area of a huge scroll. Period manuscripts were for the most part very small. Even the large choir books intended to be read from a distance were rarely more than a couple of feet tall. I have no desire to impose standard sizes, but please consider limiting the size of your scrolls, and take standard frame sizes into account when you are making them so that the recipient of your scroll won't have to pay for a custom frame.

In Service to the Outlands, I remain,

Tatiana Pavlovna Sokolova

STANDARD TEXT FOR THE STAG OF THE OUTLANDS

Here is a text for the Order of the Stag of the Outlands. I will run other new texts in future issues so that they will be available prior to the Scribe's Handbook being printed.

Tatiana Pavlovna Sokolova

Stag of the Outlands

Proclaim to all gentles and nobles and let it be known by these present letters that We, _____ and _____, King and Queen of these mighty Outlands, send due Commendations and Greetings. We hope not only to embellish, but to increase the dignity of the Outlands when We dispense titles of honor among noble, discreet and valiant persons. Wherefore We have directed the regard of Our consideration to [NAME] who has rendered to us and Our Kingdom not only useful but fruitful and honorable services. We do prefer and create him/her, by Grant of Arms, a Companion of the Order of the Stag of the Outlands. He/She shall receive all honors, duties and privileges as are conveyed by this station.

[The College of Arms having approved: [BLAZON] for his/her sole and unique use, the Honorable Lord/Lady [NAME] shall bear these Arms as a sign of Our high favor.]

(Or if the recipient has not passed Arms:)

[It is Our will that the honorable Lord/Lady [NAME] consult with Ourselves and Our heralds in order that [he/she] might determine suitable and unique Arms.]

Done by Our hand this [date] day of [Month], Anno Societatis XXXII being 1997 Gregorian. Signatures of Crown

[Being required by Their Majesties to make search in the records of my office for the Arms of the aforementioned gentle, I do find that [he/she] may lawfully bear the Arms herein mentioned. In witness whereof, I, White Stag Principal Herald, set my hand. Signature of Herald]

The herald's confirmation of Arms appears only when the recipient's arms are included in the scroll.

Other variants on this are possible, as per the usual rules in the Scribe's Handbook. If you wish to create your own text, it needs to be pre-approved by the Scribe's office before being used, or else your scroll may not be signed.

FROM THE CHRONICLER

Greetings unto the peoples of the Outlands.

I would like to express my thanks to Sir Jochen and Mistress Monika for their donation to the Outlandish Herald.

There are often many events in December and January, but there's very little on the calendar at this time. Please remember that if you want to have an announcement of your event published here, you will have to get the event form in to Mistress Katrine/Coemri, and the text of your announcement to me, by roughly the beginning of the month before it is to appear.

The exact date that articles are due each month varies, but can be found on the back cover; the day is the Wednesday before the first full weekend in the month. I may accept something late, depending on what it is, my mood, how many times I've had such a request from that particular group/person, and so on. In general, it is best to assume that late means it'll be in the following month.

Note also that, due to mail delays and such, that events in the first few days of a month are only effectively advertised in the preceding month's newsletter. This is because third class mail (i.e., three-fourths of the OH subscription list) can not be counted on to be delivered until the first week of the month. Realistically, there is no guaranteed delivery time, but last week/first week is what typically happens.

In summary, start sending in those holiday event cards and letters!

Rüdeger Günther Marenholtz

FROM THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Andrew Smith (Duke Andrew of Riga), Executive Assistant to the Board of Directors, sends courteous greetings to all.

The Board of Directors is accepting applications for the position of Society Seneschal (Vice President for Operations). This is a part-time, paid position, which requires approximately thirty-two hours per week. As this position is responsible for the medieval aspects of the SCA, a solid knowledge of our administration, procedures, and governing documents is required. The Society Seneschal deals with large amounts of correspondence (written and telephone) with all kingdom seneschals, royalty, and corporate level offices, especially the Registrar (Vice President for Corporate Operations) and the Executive Assistant to the Board of Directors. Applicants must be available for the four quarterly Board Discussion Sessions per year (typically held on Fridays), plus the four Board meeting days per year (typically on Saturdays). As Thursdays and Sundays tend to be travel days, each applicant must have sixteen days available per year, of which, eight are week days. Additional traveling may be required. Availability for evening conference calls per year (usually eight per year, generally starting at 9:00 p.m. Eastern Time) is also required.

Applicants must possess telephone skills, and be very capable of interacting with unique SCA personalities. Capability of processing and distilling large amounts of information from different sources is a must. Organizational and problem solving skills are essential. Applicants must possess enough space at home for a medium sized office, have immediate access to a PC and printer, possess word processing skills, and be email accessible.

Having held a kingdom level office(s) will be considered, but is not required.

Resumes (mundane and medieval, including awards and titles) must be sent to: Society Seneschal Resumes SCA, Inc. Box 360789 Milpitas, CA 95036

Receipt of all resumes will be acknowledged.

Emailed resumes will not be accepted.

Resumes must be received no later than November 15, 1997.

THE SAD PASSING OF A MASTER

Mistress Alanna and the House of Caer du Pard, along with her sister, Lady Caterina Fregoso, now of the Outlands, are deeply saddened to announce the passing of our beloved Household brother, His Excellency Master William Blackfox O.P., the author of Warthaven, on the evening of September 12th, AS XXXII (1997).

Not only has Ansteorra lost one of her shining stars, but indeed, the entire Knowne World seems somewhat dimmer for the untimely snuffing of this bright flame. We take great comfort in knowing that all of you join with us in mourning his passing. He was a truly unique and gifted individual, and the void he has left will never be filled. He was 43. God Bless you, Master William, and thank you for sharing with us all your amusing caricatures and keen insights into our Society.

ANLIEPLIC DUN/LONELY MOUNTAIN STATUS CHANGE

Due to inadquate membership and activity levels, the Kingdom Seneschal, with the advice and consent of the Crown of the Outlands, is recommending to the Society Seneschal and the Board of Directors that the Shire of Anlieplic Dun (aka Lonely Mountain) be officially dissolved. Please direct any questions or comments to the Kingdom Seneschal.

SACK OF THE CITY II

Nahrun Kabirun, October 3-5, AS XXXII (1997)

The city has lain vacant for a year. Now, with rumors of hidden treasure, it's a race! You and your condotierre, picked men all, have arrived at the deserted city. But spies tell you that a rival is in the city as well. How did that happen?!? Ah well, you give the orders to your men. Hunt down the interlopers and find the treasure before they do. A bloody fight in the streets and alleys is in the offing, but the reward has your dogs of war straining at the lead. Cry Havoc!

The shires of Nahrun Kabirun and Loch Thioram are hosting Sack of the City once again. Forget the hay bales. Remember the battle in the rocks from Conan the Barbarian? That is the setting for this battle. The place is the City of the Rocks State Park, NM. The site will open on Friday at 5:00 p.m. On Saturday starting at 10:00 a.m., two heavy armies will fight it out in a 2-hour resurrection battle, with combat archery allowed. The shires will provide the native guides for the two forces. After lunch, those fighters still up to combat will have a team mad mother. Put together your own team of up to five fighters, including archers, and see who's left at the end. Saturday evening will have a bardic competition around the bonfire. On Sunday again at 10:00 a.m., the rapier combatants will take to the city for a 2-hour resurrection duel between the Montagues and the Capulets. Afterwards, they too will have a team mad mother, though without combat archery. There will also be tournaments for both on the days that they are not in the city. An archery competition and Arts & Sciences competition are also being planned.

The site has a few showers, bathrooms of both types, picnic tables, fixed grills, and is wet. The Faywood Hot Springs are only 2 miles from the site. The cost for the weekend is $13 for adult members, half price for children. There is a member discount of $3. To get there take your best route to either Deming or Silver City, NM. From Deming go north on NM 180. From Silver City go south on NM 180. Take NM 180 to NM 61 and turn east. On NM 61 go approximately 2 miles to the park road and turn north. Follow the signs.

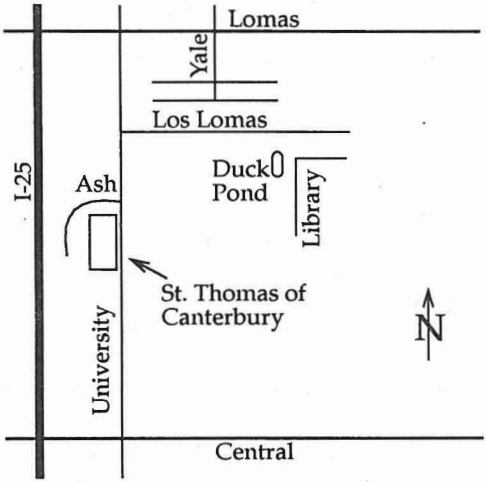
CELTIC NEW YEAR

al-Barran, October 25, AS XXXII (1997)

Fear not as you feel the first frosty fingers of fall chill your neck, nor as you hear the tread of ghostly footsteps following you on this All Hallow's Eve. Come share the hosptiality of al-Barran as we celebrate Celtic New Year. Dress in your finest early-period garb as we offer fighter and non-fighter chance after chance to cheat death, both on the field and off. The festivities will be held at the University of New Mexico Duck Pond and the St. Thomas of Canterbury Episcopal Church in Albuquerque, New Mexico on October 25, 1997.

Fighters, both heavy and light, listen for the wail of the banshee as you prepare yourself for best death and bereavement tourneys, torch tourneys, resurrection melees, and, for those authorized in both heavy and light, a cross-over tourney. Be warned, no one will be authorized on the day of the cross-over tourney - do so early, and hone your skills until then. For the young and the young at heart, we will have boffers and Slay the Dragon. For the non-fighters, there will be hunkerhausen at the Duck Pond and, during the day, the solarium at the feast hall will be open for boardgames, cards, and conversation. At dusk, gather at St. Thomas of Canterbury Church hall to enjoy a hearty feast, be entertained by our bards, and afterwards join in the Masked Revel and dance the night away. Court will be at Their Majesties' and Their Excellencies' desire through out the day.

The feast menu will include: breads, cheeses, flavored honeys and butters, smoked eggs, broth of thyme, salad, roasted chicken, barley pilaf, stewed apples and bogberries, roast beef, roasted winter vegetables, honey cakes, sweet oat cakes, fruit, and nuts. Each course has one dish for the strict vegetarian. Those who are food-sensitive are encouraged to contact the feast coordinator regarding menu or ingredients.



Directions: Tournament site: Take your best route to Interstate 25 and Lomas. Go east on Lomas to University. Head south (right) on University to the first traffic light. Turn east (left) onto Los Lomas; after several blocks the Duck Pond will be off to the right. There is construction in the area, so be wary of detours. Feast Hall: The St. Thomas of Canterbury Church Parish Hall is at 425 University Boulevard, and easily reached from the Duck Pond.

Prepare yourselves, as prizes shall abound for tournaments, games, and best mask at the Masked Revel. All this and quite possibly more will be at your disposal in beautiful al-Barran in the fall.

Fees: There is no site fee for the Duck Pond. Feast fee is $7/adult, $4/children under 12. There is no site fee for the church during the day, there is a $3 site fee if only attending the Masked Ball. Make checks payable to SCA - al-Barran. Reservations will be accepted up until the day of the event.

Site Information: The Duck Pond is absolutely bone-dry as regards alcohol, and pets must be on leashes. The Parish Hall is discreetly wet, and no pets are allowed.

DRAGONSSPINE BARONIAL ARTS AND SCIENCES CELEBRATION

Dragonsspine, November 22, AS XXXII (1997)

The Barony of Dragonsspine invites you to attend their baronial Arts and Sciences celebration on Saturday, 22 November. A&S entries of all kinds are welcomed and two champions will be chosen - one from Dragonsspine and one from outside of Dragonsspine. A special contest, sponsored by Dragonsspine's Golden Key, will offer a prize for the best loaner garb made specifically for this event - with all entries going to Golden Key after the judging. Several classes are also planned and there will be court dancing in the evening and the afternoon. A feast in two courses will be prepared by the Dragonsspine Cooks Guild. Contact Lady Murkiel for information or with special dietary concerns. The feast is $4 (paid reservations) until 1 November, and $6 until 20 November. Since our site is not yet confirmed, site maps, site fees, and hours will be published in the November OH.

Autocrat: Signy of Stavanger (Susan Ewing), 4858 A Sonata Dr, Colorado Springs, CO 80918, (719) 264-1751

Feast coordinator: Lady Murkiel (Christi Redeker), (719) 591-7179

HUNTERS FEAST

Windkeep, December 6, AS XXXII (1997)

The harvest has ended, the hunters are home, and Yuletide is fast approaching. The Shire of Windkeep asks all who will to pause with them to reflect upon the world and join them in a Hunter's Feast to be held December 6, 1997 at the Lions Park Community Center in Cheyenne, Wyoming. The site will open at 12 noon and close at midnight. This site is damp, beer and wine only, and in period containers. The event is limited to the first 100 reservations, and there is NO sideboard seating. If you desire crash space, or motel reservations, contact the Autocrat.

If we are blessed with clear weather during the day, there will be heavy and light weapons pick-up fighting and other outdoor games. Indoors there will be good fellowship and whatever games as can be devised. A brewing competition will be held during the afternoon with prizes for several catagories, and a bardic competition will be held during the feast, as in past years, with a gift of silver to the best entertainer. Sign-up sheets will be at the troll. Throughout the day there will be an informal competition for best hunters theme (garb/tablesetting/banner) to be arbitrarily judged by the kitchen staff.

There will be a soup and bread donation lunch from about 1 PM till about 2 PM. The main feast will start about 6 PM. If the Crown attends, and so wishes, court will be held. The feast will consist of the bounty of the land, and whatever the Hunters and Gatherers of our fair land provide. If you are vegetarian, or have food allergies, or aversions, please contact The Keeper of the Feast, and she will prepare dishes suited to your tastes.

Site and feast fees for the day are $10.00, with children ages 6 - 12 half price, and children under 6 free. For availability of reservations after Nov. 15, contact The Keeper of the Feast directly. Mail reservations to the autocrat, with checks made to SCA-Windkeep. Please include legal name, society name, address, phone number and member number, and local group on your check. Include a list with all of the above information if you are paying for others.

If you would like to help clean up or serve, please contact The Keeper of the Feast. Merchanting is allowed in the hall before the feast, but must be coordinated in advance.

Directions to the site: Take I-25 to the Central Ave turn off. Turn east at the stop light, and proceed east, taking the right turn onto Kennedy into Lions Park. You will take the second left turn from there onto Carey, and proceed through the park to the turn for the Botanical Gardens, on your left. The Community House will be just past the gardens. There will be signs.

Autocrat: Master Rhys Afalwin (Larry Hammons), 10700 Ranch Rd, Cheyenne, WY 82009, (307) 632-1133, MasterRhys@aol.com

AL-BARRAN MID-WINTER

al-Barran, December 20, AS XXXII (1997)

On December 20 of this year Their Excellencies, Sir Kragon and Mistress Sarah, Baron and Baroness of al-Barran, shall host an afternoon feast, a twilight court, and an evening revel at the New Mexico Fairgrounds Youth Hall. The theme shall be the "Colors of al-Barran". Come dressed in your finest black, gold, silver, or any combination thereof, from any time or place between 600 C.E. and 1600 C.E.

The site will open at noon for the general populace to set their tables. The feast will begin at 2pm with a grand processional to welcome Their then-Royal Majesties, Cameron and AnneAliz, King and Queen of the Outlands. The feast, featuring a special bounty of dishes gathered by various explorers from around the world, will follow immediately. Due to certain logistical limitations, only people with paid feast reservations will be allowed into the hall prior to court at 5pm. There is no off-board seating available.

After court, the hall will be rearranged for Caroling and Court Dancing. In keeping with al-Barran tradition, the tavern area will be open for Middle Eastern music and dance at the same time.

The reveling will wind down around 11:30pm, as we must be out of the hall by midnight.

Lady Stephanie of Barrows Loch will be cooking the feast and will supply a menu listing meat and non-meat dishes in a future announcement.

Paid reservations postmarked before December 1st will be $12 for adults and $6 for children six to twelve years of age. Five year olds and under are free. From December 1st onward, reservations shall be $15 and $7.50, respectively. This will include a side board and dessert table. Once again, the tavern will feature a cash bar and will be open during the feast. State law prohibits bringing your own alcohol onto the site, so plan accordingly.

More information next month.

Autocrat: Master Iric of Black Elk (Rick Bieniewski), POBox 27676, Albuquerque, NM 87125, (505) 292-0147
